

1 State Board of Education Resolution
2 Establishing State Board Priorities for Artificial Intelligence in Education
3 SR24-12

4
5 WHEREAS, the rapid advancement of Artificial Intelligence (AI) technology is transforming
6 every sector of society, including education;
7

8 WHEREAS, the McKinsey Global Institute predicts that 375 million workers globally will need
9 to transition to new occupational categories by 2030 due to the profound impact of automation
10 and artificial intelligence, underscoring the urgent need to equip District students with AI literacy
11 and skills to ensure their employability in a rapidly evolving job market;^{1 2}
12

13 WHEREAS, the D.C. State Board of Education (State Board) prioritizes the development of AI
14 competency for District students, and in support of this has:
15

- 16 • Held internal discussions during meetings of the State Level and Systemic Policy
17 Committee and the College, Career, and Life Readiness Committee;
- 18 • Hosted an AI roundtable in November 2023 featuring subject matter experts, including a 19 consultant for Microsoft Learning and a local Science, Technology, Engineering, and 20 Math teacher;³
- 21 • Named Representative Brandon Best, the Ward 6 representative, to the National 22 Association of State Boards of Education (NASBE) EdTech Advisory Group to explore
23 issues surrounding AI in education, digital equity and inclusion, privacy and security,
24 media literacy, and more;⁴
- 25 • Held preliminary discussions with other agencies in the District of Columbia's education
26 cluster, such as the Office of the State Superintendent of Education (OSSE); and
- 27 • Heard public testimony from witnesses at the March and April Public Meetings,
28 expressing the urgency;^{5 6}
29

30 WHEREAS, there is currently no comprehensive, citywide strategy for integrating AI into the 31 educational curriculum and operations within the District; and

33 WHEREAS, the absence of a comprehensive strategy for integrating Artificial Intelligence (AI)
34 in schools across the District of Columbia presents significant risks of inconsistent
35 implementation, which could further exacerbate educational disparities among students from 36 different backgrounds.

37
38 NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the State Board recommends the District of 39 Columbia focus on the following priorities:

- 40 • Developing and regularly updating a citywide strategy for AI in education that involves 41 all agencies in the education cluster;
- 42 • Enhancing educator capacity in AI technologies through professional development and 43 resource allocation;
- 44 • Determining ways to integrate AI technology appropriately into school curricula,
45 ensuring accessibility and inclusivity;
- 46 • Establishing a common student use policy that addresses ethical concerns, privacy,
47 anonymity, and safety;
- 48 • Increasing technological infrastructure to enable effective and equitable integration of AI;
49 and

50
51 BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that the State Board calls on other agencies in the education
52 cluster, including OSSE, District of Columbia Public Schools, and the Office of the Deputy
53 Mayor for Education, to collaborate and make a plan for addressing AI in education in the D.C.
